

Intro Video

Loxodonta Productions
2501 Champa St.
Denver, CO 80205
(720)391-2658

An old-timey title card is shown, reading: "F.O.X. UPDATE (Federation of Outstanding Explorers). A 1930's-esque narration begins over animated images depicting the events and people described.

NARRATOR

Attention Federation of Outstanding Explorers. Celebrated archaeologist Professor Arthur Fact, one of F.O.X.'s most prolific globetrotters, has gone missing in Peru. Fact recently lead a small team deep into the Loreto Jungle in pursuit of the Ubah Kahn Ruins; while several members of the ill-fated expedition have returned, the Professor was sadly not among them. It was Arthur Fact's research into the Ubah Kahn civilization that lead him to the small ruins along the Yavari River. While many doubt the existence of the ancient culture, Fact believed he had discovered the location of their ruins and swore to return with relics he would share with the world!

F.O.X. Senior Explorer Claus von Ferbodenstein is leading a small rescue team in search of the Professor. Von Ferbodenstein, a globally-renowned venture capitalist, is fresh off his wildly successful expedition near Masaka, from which he returned with millions in artifacts and jewels. Accompanying him is Dr. Rosalind Forbes, Fact's former research assistant and the last one to see him in the United States. She was working side-by-side with the Professor before his disappearance.

Given the dire circumstances, the Federation of Outstanding Explorers is recruiting as many F.O.X. Junior Explorers as possible to aid in the search for the professor and the Ancient relics he went in search of. But be forewarned: while the nature of the mysticism surrounding the ruins, as described by Fact in his journals, may be subject to fair skepticism; the ruins themselves are an academic enigma.

(MORE)

NARRATOR (cont'd)
And if a seasoned explorer and survival expert such as Arthur Fact has indeed been swallowed by some force of the jungle- be it natural, unnatural, or supernatural- who knows what kind of danger may be afoot. Godspeed.

A similar title card to the opening is shown, reading:

NARRATOR (CON'T)
This has been an Update Report of the Federation of Outstanding Explorers.